16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A

23rd JULY 2017

READINGS: Wis 12:13, 16-19; Rom 8:26-27; Mt 13:24-43

God has both the knowledge and the power to root out evil people if He so desired. The FIRST READING talks about His leniency, and how we ought to imitate it.

The GOSPEL elaborates - the Church, and indeed the world, is like a field in which wheat and weeds grow side by side until they are separated at harvest.

In the SECOND READING St Paul gives us most important advice - the Holy Spirit helps us to pray when we can't find the right words.

WHILE EVERYONE WAS ASLEEP
THE ENEMY SOWED WEEDS
THROUGH THE WHEAT MT 13:25

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS

Recently Deceased: Alan BARLOW, Helen SMOLENAARS

Anniversaries: Dulcie & Terry HYNES, Beryl and Charles LLOYD, Concesa MAMANGLU, Silvana ANZALONE

Pray for the sick and those unable to get to Mass

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Reflecting on the years he spent in labour camps, Alexander Solzhenitsyn has this to say:

I learnt one great lesson from my years in prison camps.

I learnt how a person becomes evil

and how he becomes good.

Gradually I came to realise that the line which separates good from evil passes not between states,

or between classes, or between political parties,

but right through every human heart.

Even in hearts that are overwhelmed by evil,

one small bridgehead of good is retained.

And in the best of all hearts,

there remains an unrooted small corner of evil.

FAITH CIRCLES WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR SMALL GROUPS

Small faith-sharing groups are a fun way to build relationships. They provide a place where each person can grow in their faith journey. They focus on the ways in which the Spirit is calling us to live a more active, loving and joyful relationship with God, our Church and our World. Weekly free small group resource called Faith Circles is available based on the Sunday Gospels with two reflections (including one by Pope Francis) as well as accompanying questions and prayer points. It is available to download at www.faithcircles.dow.org.au or have it sent to you each month via email subscription. Click the website link to subscribe to the Faith Circles email list.

TAKE A RISK AND GIVE THE GIFT OF FAITH

In our parish there is a team of volunteers that take a risk and step out in faith. State Government schools do not provide lessons that teach the basic message about Jesus, our faith and the great adventure that life can be with God. We were all given our gift of faith by someone, someone stepped-up for us so that we would know Jesus. Each week of the school year Catechists present 30-minute lessons using a step-by-step lesson plan that helps Catholic children understand their faith, grow in love and maturity and learn what it means to be Catholic. Take a risk and give the gift of faith. Become a Catechist teacher or helper today! For more information, please call 4222 2416 or ask our parish priest for more information.

My dear people,

The farmer in Jesus's parable planted good seed in his field and expected a wonderful harvest. Soon the seeds began to sprout, and it looked as if the farmer's expectations would be fulfilled. But then later on he discovered weeds growing among the young shoots of wheat—not just one here and there, but weeds everywhere, much so that the wheat seemed to have disappeared.

Sooner or later, weeds begin to appear in the field of our lives—a friend betrays us, our spouse may prove unfaithful, a business partner takes us 'for a ride'. The badness of bad people we expect, and we can arm ourselves against it. But the badness of good people can take us by surprise and, of course, it hurts us. For a while we can become very negative, tending to see everything as bad.

What was the farmer to do? The obvious answer was to pull the weeds out. But this would be impossible. The weeds were growing so close to the stalks of wheat that one could not be uprooted without the other. So what did he do? Well, firstly, he calmed down. This enabled him to see things in perspective. He would have to be humble and patient. He would have to work hard on the wheat, coaxing and encouraging it with the hope that it would outgrow the weeds.

We must never despair. The world is a mixture of light and darkness, good and evil. Wheat and weeds grow side by side in the same person, you and I included. No one understands this better than Our Lord. Even in His own small garden—the twelve apostles—which He tended carefully for three years, the weeds persisted, yet He did not write it off. Evil, of course, must be resisted, but in such a way that we do not further evil in the process. Evil can only be overcome by good.

The farmer set to work. He concentrated on the wheat. He noticed that it was by reaching and straining upwards that it grew. By making the wheat struggle harder, the weeds were actually having a beneficial effect on the crop.

Because of the existence of evil we have to struggle. It's a lifelong struggle. But it is through struggle that we grow. So, the presence of evil could even be said to be necessary. Unless we had to make choices between good and evil we would never grow in virtue.

On harvest day the farmer separated the weeds from the wheat, reaping a fine harvest—not one hundred percent, but the quality was excellent. He felt this harvest had given him more satisfaction than many others for the victory was hard-won.

This parable of Our Lord is both realistic and optimistic. In the end, good triumphs. Truth and goodness are invincible.
