SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER – YEAR A – SUNDAY 19 APRIL 2020

Message from Fr Duane

Thanks to all who joined us for Mass online on Easter Sunday – we have had about 2,500 people view the Mass online! A big thank you to Pete Veerhuis for getting the ball rolling with this, and his ongoing tech support, Rebecca Hall for her great work in making the Mass accessible through Facebook and the parish website, and Pete Gilmore from the Office of the Bishop for his support. Thanks also to Sinh Le for all of his wonderful help with the technology, and the music. From now on, Sunday Mass will be live streamed at 5pm every Sunday from St Therese Church West Wollongong with Fr Duane and seminarian Sinh Le.

This is a wonderful way of staying connected spiritually through the Mass which is the high point of our worship as Catholics. It was lovely to receive some photos from parishioners and friends of themselves and their screens, which we then shared on our Facebook page. We would love to receive more of these photos during the coming weeks (though try not to let this distract you too much from the actual Mass!)

We are also hoping to create more new opportunities for online connection during this time. Click “like” on our Facebook page to stay informed, and please also invite others to connect with us through Facebook or our weekly emailing list.

A big thank you to all the volunteers who have offered their services to help with “Corona ministries”. We are currently awaiting new guidelines from the Diocese and will inform you of next steps as soon as these are received.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

This Sunday 19 April, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, is also designated “Divine Mercy Sunday”. This is a popular devotion inspired by two Polish saints of the 20th century – St Faustina and St John Paul II. It is a powerful reminder that through the death and resurrection of Christ, God has reconciled the whole world to himself – and that this Divine Mercy is greater than any sin! Many would be familiar with the image of Divine Mercy – often connected to a simple but powerful prayer: “Jesus I trust in You”. During these times especially, let us be inspired by the words of St John Paul II who once said “Those who sincerely say ‘Jesus I trust in You’ will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears.” Let us trust the risen Christ even in these uncertain times - and let us pray for an ever deeper trust!

This is the perfect time to be reminded of the power of Sundays — this day on which Jesus rose from the dead, the most important event in human history, is the day that Christians have gathered together for prayer, Scripture and the Eucharist, since the time of the Apostles. This is the day that the Lord has made sacred, a day of rest and reflection, a day of gratitude, a day of communion with God and with one another. The Sacrament of the Eucharist is the greatest sign and source of this communion, and while we grieve the loss of this opportunity, the Church has always taught that when attending Mass is not physically possible, we can be assured of the renewed and deepened presence of Christ in our hearts by making an act of Spiritual Communion.

There are many prayers of spiritual communion, but this seems the most popular:

Prayer of "Spiritual Communion", given to us by St Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787):

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The faithful across the Diocese of Wollongong are urged to join with other members of the National Council of Churches, so that all Christians continue to pray at 7pm every night during the Pandemic crisis.

PRAYING FOR OUR WORLD, AMIDST COVID-19:

Gracious God,
We give thanks anew for your providence and presence.
We prayerfully seek your grace, amidst COVID-19 here and overseas.
We pray for those in need of healing.
We pray for your peace with those who are anxious or grieving.
We pray you will continue to strengthen and sustain all those who are serving in response.
We pray for your Holy Spirit's discernment amidst the many choices and decisions facing our national, community and medical leaders.
We pray we each might see quickly what more we can do to help those who are vulnerable.
This prayer for our nation in the family of nations, with all that is on our hearts, we gather now and pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SUNDAY 19 APRIL 2020 — SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (YEAR A)

First Reading — Acts 2:42-47 — The faithful lived together and owned everything in common.

The whole community remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles, to the brotherhood, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

The many miracles and signs worked through the apostles made a deep impression on everyone.

The faithful all lived together and owned everything in common; they sold their goods and possessions and shared out the proceeds among themselves according to what each one needed.

They went as a body to the Temple every day but met in their houses for the breaking of bread; they shared their food gladly and generously; they praised God and were looked up to by everyone. Day by day the Lord added to their community those destined to be saved.

Responsorial Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting OR Alleluia.

1. Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'
Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.'
Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.' R.
2. I was thrust, thrust down and falling, but the Lord was my helper.
The Lord is my strength and my song; he was my saviour.
There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just. R.
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.
This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad. R.

Second Reading — 1 Peter 1:3-9 — He has given us a new birth as his children, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy has given us a new birth as his sons, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead, so that we have a sure hope and the promise of an inheritance that can never be spoilt or soiled and never fade away, because it is being kept for you in the heavens. Through your faith, God's power will guard you until the salvation which has been prepared is revealed at the end of time. This is a cause of great joy for you, even though you may for a short time have to bear being plagued by all sorts of trials; so that, when Jesus Christ is revealed, your faith will have been tested and proved like gold – only it is more precious than gold, which is corruptible even though it bears testing by fire – and then you will have praise and glory and honour. You did not see him, yet you love him; and still without seeing him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe; and you are sure of the end to which your faith looks forward, that is, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation — 1 Corinthians 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia! You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me, but still believe! Alleluia!

Gospel — John 20:19-31 — After eight days, Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him: 'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.
