Message from Fr Duane

I begin this week's message passing on the recent announcements from the NSW Government regarding Covid restrictions in the context of our parish life. Masks remain mandatory until Friday February 25th. I will be consulting with our music ministry as we look towards the reintroduction of congregational singing in coming weeks. But the most significant change is that, as of Friday 18th February, QR codes are no longer required at churches. Not only are they not required, we will remove them immediately since, as many experts point out, the added risk brought by queueing and crowding at the entrance to the church now outweighs the benefit of QR codes.

This means an end to the ministry of "Covid monitor" as we knew it. For me, this brings more feelings than I thought it would! There is a symbolism in this move towards normality, with unrestricted and unregistered attendance at our churches now possible. But the dominant feeling it brings is a deep gratitude to our wonderful monitors. I think back to the first time in our lifetimes when churches were closed in 2020 - and the subsequent reopening. At that point I made a call out to parishioners to consider serving in a brand new role of "Covid monitor" so that we could comply with regulations and reopen as quickly and safely as possible. It was so wonderful to see so many people, especially younger people who were less vulnerable to Covid, saying "yes" to this call. They then came together for many meetings to share their wisdom along the way and have served faithfully and generously through many challenging times – always with a smile! To our monitors, on behalf of all the parishioners who have attended Masses since Covid began – thank you and God bless you for your work!

I will provide further updates next week as restrictions continue to ease. Let us continue to pray for those sick, isolated or anxious due to Covid, and for our health workers and civil leaders, and continue to take reasonable measures to keep ourselves and each other safe - while continuing to take new opportunities to reconnect with each other and reach out to new people throughout the coming year!

Message from Sr Kerry

It was a Sunday morning when I called in to see a woman I knew. The previous evening there had been a murder in the town. I knew no other details except that it was just a couple of blocks from where I lived.

How shocked I was when I visited Imelda to learn it was her brother who was arrested for the murder. The town was tense. Retribution and payback is very much part of the culture.

Ben was charged and was to appear in the local court via video link from the jail where he was now imprisoned. Imelda asked me to go to court with them as they needed protection. It was frightening.

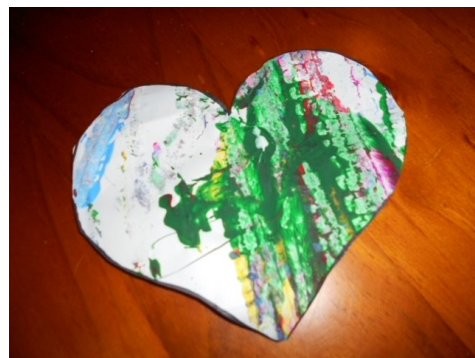

On the day of the hearing I called for Imelda and her partner. Off to the courthouse we went. I was very nervous and very much out of my comfort zone. I parked the car and there we sat. Another car parked next to us. The driver got out of the car and walked to my car. The tension escalated as the woman approaching was the sister of the murdered woman.

I was there to protect Imelda and Craig! Craig was more than double my size. I seized with fear.

The backdoor was opened. The sister of the deceased said, 'Give us time and we will forgive you. We just need some time.'

In all my life I have never heard such words of forgiveness spoken and extended to another. My fear melted away. We are called to love. How does your life correspond with the gospel today?

One of the most profound ways by which Catholics believe we can encounter Jesus is through the Sacraments of the Church. Each Sacrament provides a unique, tangible encounter with Jesus, and helps draw us closer to God and to one another. The Sacraments are significant milestones in the faith journey of not only your children but also your whole family.

Sacramental Program for 2022 is about to begin. If your son or daughter would like to receive sacraments this year, please refer to attached information or pick up the note at the church door.

20 FEBRUARY 2022—THE SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR C)

First Reading — 1 Samuel 26: 2, 7-9, 11-13, 22-23 The Lord has put you in my power, but I will not raise my hand against you.

Saul set off and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand men chosen from Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

In the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul lying asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him.

Then Abishai said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I will not need to strike him twice.' David answered Abishai, 'Do not kill him, for who can lift his hand against the Lord's anointed and be without guilt? The Lord forbid that I should raise my hand against the Lord's anointed! But now take the spear beside his head and the pitcher of water and let us go away.' David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, for a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them.

David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them. He called out, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the soldiers come across and take it. The Lord repays everyone for his uprightness and loyalty. Today the Lord put you in my power, but I would not raise my hand against the Lord's anointed.'

Responsorial Psalm — The Lord is kind and merciful.

1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord all my being, bless his holy name.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings. R.
2. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion. R.
3. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.
He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults. R.
4. As far as the east is from the west so far does he remove our sins.
As a father has compassion on his sons, the Lord has pity on those who fear him. R.

Second Reading — 1 Corinthians 15:45-49 Just as we have carried the earthly image, we must carry the heavenly image.

The first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; but the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. That is, first the one with the soul, not the spirit, and after that, the one with the spirit. The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven. As this earthly man was, so are we on earth; and as the heavenly man is, so are we in heaven. And we, who have been modelled on the earthly man, will be modelled on the heavenly man.

Alleluia Alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you. Alleluia!

Gospel — Luke 6:27-38 Be merciful as your father is merciful.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. If you love those who love you, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks can you expect? For even sinners do that much. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount. Instead, love your enemies and do good, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap; because the amount you measure out is the amount you will be given back.'
