Message from Fr Duane

Last week's "Community Fun Day" was a truly blessed occasion. From the window of good weather in the midst of the otherwise constant rain, to the wonderful turnout (estimated at 200 people), it was an important step in rebuilding community for the people of our two parishes and beyond. There was a real sense of welcome, belonging, and joy throughout the day, and events like this are an important part of helping all people in our community (parishioners or not) to know that our parish is a place for them. Special thanks to the Community Co-ordination Team across the two parishes – Andrew Thornberry, Maria Matos, Fiona Fernandez and Emma Parrish – for all their work in preparing and leading the day; to Judith Hurley for all her work in giving us access to Edmund Rice College and setting up the BBQ and hall perfectly; to all the welcomers and helpers, to St Pius Primary School and St Therese Primary School for their support and of course thank you to every single person who came.

During the past week over 100 children received their First Reconciliation in both parishes. Thank you to the Sacramental Team across the two parishes, and to the parents who are the most important teachers of their children for their faithfulness in the preparation of their children.

This past week (and this Sunday 29th May) we celebrate Fr Jerzy on his 40th Anniversary of Ordination. Fr Jerzy has served faithfully since 2019 as Polish Chaplain, also celebrating weekday Mass and Reconciliation at Unanderra and occasionally at West Wollongong. Thank you and congratulations Fr Jerzy!

This coming week we observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and National Reconciliation Week. As we celebrate the Feasts of Ascension and Pentecost, the culmination of the Easter Season, let us pray that the risen Lord, by the Gift of the Holy Spirit, will bring about a deeper unity amongst all his disciples, as well as healing and reconciliation for our nation and its first peoples.

CATHOLIC MISSION APPEAL – NEXT WEEKEND JUNE 4-5

Next week we will have our annual opportunity to hear more about Catholic Mission and respond with prayerful and financial support to this vital work of service to those most in need throughout the world. You may wish to bring money to donate to this worthy cause next weekend.

Message from Sr Kerry

My dad literally dropped dead. The morning of his death we shared a conversation. Dad left the room and died. The shock was something I hadn't experienced before. I felt it was just a bad dream and I would wake up and discover that is what it was.... a bad dream. It took me three months to come to the realisation that my dad had died. I had to accept reality. Life would never be quite the same again. It wasn't easy.

The sense I experienced I imagine the apostles experienced something similar at the Ascension. Shock. Disbelief. Grief. Tears. Lost.

Life does go on, but differently.

As I have said before, "The hands of Jesus in our world today can be found at the end of our own arms."

Are you courageous and daring enough to be the presence of Jesus for others?

You are invited to attend a one day workshop on Eucharist. The Sacrifice we Offer.

Where: Xavier Conference centre, 38 Harbour St Wollongong.

When: Saturday 11th June

Time: 9:30 am - 2:30 pm.

Lunch and morning tea will be provided.

There is no cost but a donation towards the costs would be appreciated.

Registration is via the Diocesan website or contact Anthony Rewak on 02 42222465 or anthonyrewak@dow.org.au

EUCHARIST - THE SACRIFICE WE OFFER

Join Bishop Mascord and people from across the Diocese for a Workshop on Saturday 11 June 2022 Xavier Conference Centre Wollongong (38 Harbour St), 9:30am - 2:30pm, presented by Sr Carmel Pilcher RSJ, PhD.

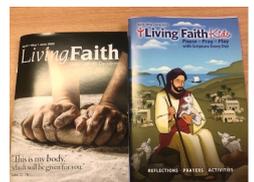

Lunch and Morning Tea provided. An opportunity to make a donation to assist in covering costs will be provided.

At this workshop we will seek to understand what the early church understood by priestly participation in the liturgy. Namely that each of us, together with our sisters and brothers in Christ, bring to the celebration the joys and hopes, grief and anxieties of our week. Ritually we place these on the Eucharistic table along with bread and wine to become the mystery of Christ's sacrifice.

Register by Tuesday 7 June 2022: dow.org.au/events.

LIVING FAITH BOOKS

Living Faith books for children and adults (Apr, May and June) are now available in the church. Cost is $5 each.

29 MAY 2022 - THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD (YEAR C)

First Reading- Acts 1: 1-11 Why are you standing there looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm — God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord!

1. All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R.
2. God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.
3. God is king of all the earth, sing praise with all your skill.
God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. R.

Second Reading — Ephesians 1:17-23 He made Jesus to sit at his right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named not only in this age but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia! Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia!

Gospel — Luke 24:46-53 While blessing them, he was taken to heaven

Jesus said to his disciples:

'You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.

'And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.'

Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.
