Message from Fr Duane

A massive thank you to all who have sent messages, prayers, offers of help and have brought help to my door when needed during the past week since I tested positive on Sunday morning. Thank you to Sister Kerry for stepping up with very minimal notice as she was on her way to the 8am Mass to provide a Liturgy for those who were there; and Fr David O'Brien for celebrating 10am and 5pm Mass as well as a 12pm baptism, at such short notice (even changing other significant plans he had for the day.)

I am on the mend, but am grateful that Fr Ben Gandy and Fr Peter Gardiner will cover my Masses this coming weekend. I look forward to hopefully returning to normal work on Tuesday 23rd May, if not before.

Fr Duane Fernandez

Message from Sr Kerry

With her three young boys my sister and I headed to Taronga Park Zoo. There was great excitement.

Having arrived at the top of the park after alighting from the chairlift we stopped to map out our route. In no time David, who was four, was not with us. This threw us into a panic. My sister stayed with the other two boys while I set out on the search. It didn't take me long to guess where David was. An intense circle of people had formed around something. From the middle of the circle, one could hear screaming. I didn't see the person screaming but I recognised the scream. From outside the circle I called, 'David.' With that the circle was broken and David flew into my arms. I said with great relief in my voice, 'What happened?' David who was sobbing said, 'You lost me.'

This incident has stayed with me for some thirty years now. How often do I think God has lost me, or disappeared out of my life? How often have I moved, but I blame God?

Whatever the event or feelings know God looks for you with anticipation, open arms and welcome.

Congratulations to Angelo and Doria Galea who this weekend are celebrating with gratitude and thanks the gift of 60 years of married life.

Sr Kerry Gardiner

21 MAY – THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD (YEAR A)

First Reading - Acts 1:1-11 Why are you standing there looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm - God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

1. All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R.
2. God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.
3. God is king of all the earth, sing praise with all your skill.
God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. R.

Second Reading - Ephesians 1:17-23 He made Jesus to sit at the right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named not only in this age but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 28:16-20

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'
