Message from Fr Duane

If you have email, please join our emailed bulletin list, where you will find easy access to many links. This week, these easy access links include the Pope's Message for the World Day of Prayer for Creation; resources for the Season of Creation 2023; Child Protection Week resources; the Pope's letter on St Joseph from 2020 "With a Father's Heart" to mark Fathers Day; and the Google Form to sign up for extended Eucharistic Adoration beginning in October. If you would like access to any of these materials and have trouble accessing the internet, please let me know.

What a joy this weekend to return to our spiritual home – the repainted and refreshed Church of the Immaculate Conception! We are grateful to St Therese for their hospitality in many ways during this past two months. As a thank you to the St Therese parish, representatives of Unanderra parish handmade a bag full of altar linens – received very gratefully by Margaret, the St Therese sacristan. As Parish Priest, it has been a joy to see the co-operation across the two parishes during these two months, and we look forward to continuing to deepen these relationships.

As for the community of Immaculate Conception Parish: the celebrations are only just beginning! The main celebration of our return to the renewed church will take place on Sunday 17th September at the 8am Mass followed by a special morning tea. I am delighted to announce that Monsignor Graham Schmitzer will be able to join us for that celebration. Spread the word and invite everyone you know who might be interested to come to this celebration! There are too many people to thank at this point in time, but we are working towards thanks and acknowledgments for all involved. It is worth noting that so much more has been renewed and refreshed in this place of worship than just the repainting – I recently learned that 110 tasks were undertaken by volunteers during this two month period! We are planning a tour of the church, a photo book and consolidation of past and recent history of this beautiful church – and beautiful community!

September 1st marks the Annual World Day of Prayer for Creation. This begins the "Season of Creation" which ends on October 4th – the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, who is renowned for his deep spiritual connection with God's creation. In his message for this day, Pope Francis builds upon the words of Pope St John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI, who taught with ever greater urgency of the moral responsibility of Catholics to be proactive in caring for our fragile earth and for every human being, especially those who are most vulnerable.

A different but connected focus this week is "Child Protection Week" in Australia, from 3rd September to 9th September. There are resources available for the children to remind them (and all of us) of their dignity, as a key element of safeguarding our children is empowering them, and listening to them. For the Church in Australia, next Sunday 10th September is "Safeguarding Sunday". On that day I will share more information about the new "Safeguarding Team" in our parish communities of West Wollongong and Unanderra, as well as providing concrete and exciting new opportunities to work together with CatholicCare in the provision of urgent foster care and respite care to local children in situations of dire need.

A happy and blessed Fathers Day to all the fathers and father figures in our community. Thank you for all that you do and have done especially for the children of our community. I commend to all of us the beautiful letter of Pope Francis on St Joseph from 2020 – "With a Father's Heart" – which reminds us of the beauty of fatherhood, especially as expressed in the humble and powerful figure of St Joseph, entrusted with the fatherly care of Jesus himself – and who continues to care for the church with his fatherly heart.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

In response to interest in extended Eucharistic Adoration after hours, we are hoping to begin First Friday Adoration in October from 7pm to 10pm. If there is enough interest it may extend to every Friday. To maximise safety for people leaving the church at 10pm, I want to ensure a number of people are attending especially for that final hour. If you are interested, please sign up at the Google Form here <https://bit.ly/adorationunanderra> or on the sign up sheets at the door of the church.

Message from Sr Kerry

Many years ago while on a retreat I was asked to ponder: if I was dying name three people that you would like around your death bed. That is a confronting question, but it definitely made me think.

Had my dad been alive he would have been named. Today as we celebrate Father's Day we think of our own dads. Some are easy to love, others may leave nightmares in our heart. Whatever this day means to you I hope you can name three people who mean much to you in life; those who have encouraged you and even carried you during hard times. May these people give you an inkling of who God is in your life; for you are loved and carried by the God who calls you to life and living.

Sr Kerry Gardiner

SOCIAL JUSTICE POINTS

In the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, I wanted to warn against the danger of experiencing the economy in an unhealthy way. "Such an economy kills" (n. 53), I said in 2013, decrying an economic model that produces waste and that fosters what we could call the "globalization of indifference". Many of you work in the economic sector: you know how everyone can benefit from a way of imagining reality that places the person at the centre, that does not belittle the worker and that seeks to create good for all. - ADDRESS OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS TO THE MEMBERS OF THE "CENTESIMUS ANNUS PRO PONTIFICE" FOUNDATION, Clementine Hall, 5 June 2023

3 SEPTEMBER - TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR A)

First Reading - Jeremiah 20:7-9

The word of the Lord God has meant derision for me

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced;
you have overpowered me: you were the stronger.

I am a daily laughing-stock,
everybody's butt.

Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!'

The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long.

I used to say, 'I will not think about him,
I will not speak in his name any more.'

Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones.

The effort to restrain it wearied me,
I could not bear it.

Responsorial Psalm - My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water. R.
2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life, my lips will speak your praise. R.
3. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy. R.
4. For you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to you; your right hand holds me fast. R.

Second Reading - Romans 12:1-2

May you present your bodies as a living sacrifice

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 16: 21-27

Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself.

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord;' he said 'this must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life?

'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'
