Message from Fr Duane

“Come and see”, says Jesus to his first disciples in today’s Gospel – who in turn went out and started inviting others to “come and see” the one they had encountered, who brought hope, meaning, healing and peace to their lives. As we continue to deepen our own relationship with Jesus, we are also called to look for opportunities to invite others to a possible encounter with this same Jesus, and Alpha is the best way I have found to do this. People from all walks of life and stages of faith, throughout the world, have experienced a deepening of their relationship with God or even their first encounter him, through Alpha. Now is the time to register if you’re interested, and to prayerfully consider who you might invite along. There are plenty of Alpha cards for you to take for yourselves or others. Please register by 31st January to assist with planning for the first night on Wednesday February 7.

Everyone involved in any form of volunteering in our parish community – in various ministries at Mass, the many behind the scenes volunteers, those who serve the sick and those in any kind of need in their homes, those who have contributed to hosting, helping or catering for Alpha, others who have contributed to one-off events, and more – you are invited to a special afternoon tea to thank you for your generosity on Sunday 4th February, 2pm. Our parish simply would not be able to operate without so many generous volunteers. Thank you for your service, and please RSVP to unanderra@dow.org.au if you are able to make it to this celebration.

Message from Sr Kerry

Shopping at Woolies I came back to the car and unpacked my groceries. I had more than a big shop. I packed the shopping into the boot and just as I finished the lady near the vehicle next to me said, ‘Would you like me to take your trolley back?’ I was taken by surprise, but I accepted her kind offer.

Never have I offered to do this for anyone nor has anyone ever asked me this question this before. A simple question; a small task; but her thoughtfulness touched me and surprised me.

In some ways are you able to ‘surprise’ someone this week?

Sr Kerry Gardiner

THE JOURNEY CATHOLIC RADIO PROGRAMME - AIRS SUNDAY 14 JANUARY 2024

On the Journey this week: Fr Mark De Battista traces the term "Lamb of God" back to Abraham and Isaac on Mount Moriah. Mother Hilda says that unlike all the sporting replays of player mistakes, God doesn't do replays of our life mistakes. Fr Tony Percy says Jesus' question; what are you seeking, highlights the deepest division that exists between those who are seeking the truth, those who are seeking God, and those who are not seeking the truth and those who are not seeking God. Byron and Francine Pirola explain the difference between liking and loving.

14 JANUARY - THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR B)

First Reading - 1 Samuel 3:3-10,19

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening

Samuel was lying in the sanctuary of the Lord, where the ark of God was, when the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He answered, 'Here I am.' Then he ran to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli said, 'I did not call. Go back and lie down.' So he went and lay down. Once again the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' He replied, 'I did not call you, my son; go back and lie down.' Samuel had as yet no knowledge of the Lord and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. Once again the Lord called, the third time. He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli then understood that it was the Lord who was calling the boy, and he said to Samuel, 'Go and lie down, and if someone calls say, "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening."' So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

The Lord then came and stood by, calling as he had done before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel answered, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.'

Samuel grew up and the Lord was with him and let no word of his fall to the ground.

Responsorial Psalm - Here I am Lord; I come to do your will.

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.
He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God R.
2. You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear.
You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Instead, here am I. R.
3. In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.
My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart. R.
4. Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord. R.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 6:13-15,17-20 Your bodies are members of the body of Christ

The body is not meant for fornication: it is for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. God, who raised the Lord from the dead, will by his power raise us up too.

You know, surely, that your bodies are members making up the body of Christ; do you think I can take parts of Christ's body and join them to the body of a prostitute? Never! But anyone who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

Keep away from fornication. All the other sins are committed outside the body; but to fornicate is to sin against your own body. Your body, you know, is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you since you received him from God. You are not your own property; you have been bought and paid for. That is why you should use your body for the glory of God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! We have found the Messiah: Jesus Christ, who brings truth and grace. Alleluia!

Gospel - John 1:35-42

They saw where Jesus lived and they stayed with him.

As John stood with two of his disciples, Jesus passed, and John stared hard at him and said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God.' Hearing this, the two disciples followed Jesus. Jesus turned round, saw them following and said, 'What do you want?' They answered, 'Rabbi,' – which means Teacher – 'where do you live?' 'Come and see' he replied; so they went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him the rest of that day. It was about the tenth hour.

One of these two who became followers of Jesus after hearing what John had said was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. Early next morning, Andrew met his brother and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' – which means the Christ – and he took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked hard at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas' – meaning Rock.
