Message from Fr Duane

As we enter into the month of May, we remember that May is traditionally the “Month of Mary”, where we especially focus on our relationship with Mary our mother – mother of the Church and model of faith. To this end, I encourage all of you to read a short Encyclical letter of Pope St Paul VI, called “Mense Maio” (“The Month of May”), published April 29 1965, during the Second Vatican Council. As is often the case with the writings of St Paul VI, it could just as well have been written in our own time, as he calls for an intensification of prayer for the Church and peace in a troubled world, especially through the powerful intercession of Mary. You can find this letter online, or if you would like a hard copy, feel free to contact me. I share these words of the Pope and Saint, and may we all deepen our closeness with Mary, who always brings us closer to her Son, as we continue to intensify our prayers for peace:

“Peace is not solely the work of man. It is also, and primarily, a gift from God. Peace comes from heaven. It will truly reign among men when we have finally proved ourselves worthy to receive this gift from Almighty God. Just as the happiness and destiny of nations are in His power, so also are the hearts of men. And so we shall obtain this lofty benefit by praying to God; by praying with constancy and watchfulness, as the Church has been wont to do from her very beginning; by praying, in particular, for the intercession and protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is the Queen of peace.”

Possible Mass time change – Saturday Vigil Mass

This Saturday and next Saturday (27th April and 4th May), we will be collecting responses from parishioners who attend the Vigil Mass, regarding possible changes of Mass time from 6pm to 5pm, especially in relation to Daylight Saving. If you sometimes attend the Vigil Mass but will not be attending on these two Saturdays, please contact me or the Parish Office if you would like to have input into this decision.

Message from Sr Kerry

When packing up the family home I laid claim to a small cross stitch that a family member had made for my mum. This framed cross stitch welcomed one when the front door was opened. It hung there in its simplicity. Most people would not have known the significance of the design, but I did know.

The pattern is taken from the Navajo American Indians. If you look closely, you will notice there is a small mistake in the work. That mistake is purposely there for the Navajos believe that in life nothing is perfect. This masterpiece is reminder of that.

Are you as realistic as the Navajo American Indians?

Sr Kerry Gardiner

SOCIAL JUSTICE POINTS

We are created, male and female, in the image and likeness of God. From the beginning, creation manifests unity and difference, bestowing on women and men a shared nature, calling, and destiny, and two distinct experiences of being human. Sacred Scripture testifies to the complementarity and reciprocity of women and men, and to the covenant between them that lies at the heart of God’s design for creation. Jesus considered women his interlocutors: he spoke with them about the Kingdom of God; he welcomed them as disciples, as for example Mary of Bethany -- ‘XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops’ (Synod on Synodality) Synthesis Report.

28 APRIL - FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (YEAR B)

First Reading - Acts 9:26-31

He explained how the Lord appeared to Saul and spoke to him on his journey.

When Saul got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to Saul and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord. But after he had spoken to the Hellenists, and argued with them, they became determined to kill him. When the brothers knew, they took him to Caesarea, and sent him off from there to Tarsus.

The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm - I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

1. My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
he poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever! R.
2. All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him;
They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust. R.
3. And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
'These things the Lord has done.' R.

Second Reading - 1 John 3:18-24

His commandments are these: that we believe and that we love one another

My children, our love is not to be just words or mere talk, but something real and active;
only by this can we be certain that we are children of the truth and be able to quieten our conscience in his presence, whatever accusations it may raise against us,
because God is greater than our conscience and he knows everything.
My dear people, if we cannot be condemned by our own conscience, we need not be afraid in God's presence, and whatever we ask him, we shall receive,
because we keep his commandments and live the kind of life that he wants.

His commandments are these:
that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we love one another as he told us to.
Whoever keeps his commandments lives in God and God lives in him.
We know that he lives in us
by the Spirit that he has given us.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit. Alleluia!

Gospel - John 15:1-8

All who live in me, and I in them, bear much fruit.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.
Every branch in me that bears no fruit he cuts away,
and every branch that does bear fruit
he prunes to make it bear even more.
You are pruned already, by means of the word that I have spoken to you.
Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.
As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself,
but must remain part of the vine,
neither can you unless you remain in me.
I am the vine, you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me, with me in him, bears fruit in plenty;
for cut off from me you can do nothing.
Anyone who does not remain in me
is like a branch that has been thrown away – he withers;
these branches are collected and thrown on the fire,
and they are burnt.
If you remain in me and my words remain in you,
you may ask what you will and you shall get it.
It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit,
and then you will be my disciples.'
