Message from Fr Duane

About 100 people have done Alpha this year in our parishes! Come and see what Alpha is all about on Wednesday 29th November at 7pm when we celebrate with those who completed the most recent Alpha and hear some of their experiences (with a free meal provided). Invite anyone else you think might be interested also, and for catering purposes please register through this QR code (or via contacting the parish office) by Sunday 25th November.

The Australian Catholic Bishops have recently published a statement entitled “Praying for a Lasting Peace” (attached with electronic bulletin; some copies available at churches or contact parish office). As we continue to witness the suffering of so many in the Middle East, it can be easy to be tempted to despair, or else to become desensitised and indifferent to the suffering. Let us instead continue to pray for the vulnerable and for those caring for them, and for a way to a just and lasting peace to be found swiftly. We can also make a financial contribution to the vital humanitarian work of Caritas in that region, online www.caritas.org.au/gaza or phone 1800 024 413. Every prayer and every contribution will make a difference.

Congratulations to the children who received their First Holy Communion last Saturday. We are excited to celebrate with those who are able to come to our Sunday 8am Mass this weekend, including with celebratory cake after Mass during a parish morning tea.

Fr Duane Fernandez

Message from Sr Kerry

During my recent holiday we drove through a town that I thought was rather sad. The buildings were falling down, on a lean or just a crumpled pile of bricks. One such building was the Convent. I thought of the sisters who would have ministered in this town and given all their energy and love to those they shared the community with. In return I thought of the love and energy given to the sisters.

I pondered the places where I have been and wondered.

What our legacy is we have no idea, but may it be life giving to all who share our lives.

Sr Kerry Gardiner

PARISH NEWS

St Vincent De Paul Giving Tree

The Vinnies Giving Tree will be placed, next weekend, near the Sacred Heart Altar full of tags for children's toys and Christmas food. The gifts received from this tree are used by the Unanderra Vinnies Conference to distribute approximately 40 Christmas hampers and toys for about seventy children, to the needy within the Unanderra area.

Gifts need to be placed under the Giving Tree by Sunday 17 December as hampers and toys will be delivered on Tuesday 19 December. A big thank you to all the generous parishioners who have supported the Vinnies Giving Tree for many years.

Morning Tea

Morning Tea will be served after 8am mass on Sunday. This will give the parish an opportunity to celebrate with the children who made their First Holy Communion last weekend. Everyone is invited to come along for a cuppa and some cake.

19 NOVEMBER - THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR A)

First Reading - Proverbs 31: 10-13, 19-20, 30-31 Give her a share in what she has worked for.

A perfect wife – who can find her? She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit.
Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands.
She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle.
She holds out her hand to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise.
Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm - Happy are those who fear the Lord.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. R.
2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. R.
3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion all the days of your life! R.

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6 The day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night.

You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it. But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Live in me and let me live in you says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit. Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 25: 14 - 30

Because you have been faithful over a few things; enter into the joy of the Lord.

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of Heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out.

'The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

'Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made."

'His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness."

'Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness."

'Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."
