Message from Fr Duane

On this Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Bishop Brian Mascord has shared his vision for the parishes of the Diocese of Wollongong, entitled Come & See, Go & Make. This message from our Bishop is accompanied by a number of excellent resources which I encourage you all to take with you this weekend at our churches – specifically, three beautifully prepared publications:

1. A vision for parishes – which our Bishop invites us to prayerfully read
2. Principles and Foundations – a short explanation of key principles described in the vision document, which are also formative in our own personal faith and understanding;
3. Go Deeper – a short compendium of additional reading on key concepts discussed in the vision document

I am excited to read and reflect upon these documents during the upcoming Advent season, and then to discern together with you all the ways we can work together to bring our Bishop’s vision to life as we continue to build up our wonderful parish community together in 2024 and beyond!

A central part of the Bishop’s vision for our parishes is Alpha – in part because he has been able to see the power of Alpha to transform countless lives and communities throughout the Diocese and beyond. You can come and see for yourself this Wednesday 29th November at 7pm at St Therese Parish Centre – registration is essential for catering purposes by Sunday 26th November at this QR code, or go to tinyurl.com/alphacomeandsee or contact the parish office.

First Friday Extended Eucharistic Adoration THIS FRIDAY 1ST DECEMBER, 7pm – 10pm with Reconciliation available throughout. All welcome!

Message from Sr Kerry

My sister loves her gardening. Often we have enjoyed time at garden events. Often she gifts me with a plant.

Having arrived in a remote town I couldn’t help but snigger at the Botanical garden. I took a photo and sent it to her.

As the days unfolded I was sorry for my sniggle. Everything has a beginning rather than an array of flowers and enormous displays. While this is arid land I quietly admired those who hope so much for the future and while they may not see the full potential gift of creation they do so in the hope for those who follow.

What is the legacy I hope to leave for others?

26 NOVEMBER - OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE (YEAR A)

First Reading - Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17

You, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep.

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.

As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats..

Responsorial Psalm - The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. R.
2. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. R.
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R.
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28

He will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death, for everything is to be put under his feet. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David! Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 25: 31 - 46

He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left.

'Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me."

'Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me."

'And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'
